

CIVIL WAR LIVING HISTORY WEEKEND

OCTOBER 11 AND 12, 2014

MULLICA HILL, NEW JERSEY

PRESENTED BY THE 28TH PENNSYLVANIA HISTORICAL ASSOCIATION &
THE 28TH PENNSYLVANIA VOLUNTEER INFANTRY
Company "C"
OF PHILADELPHIA

Come out and bring the family! Visit the Union and Confederate camps, watch a daily skirmish, and view weapon displays, drill and firing demonstrations, candle dipping, pies baked over the open fire, quilting and basket weaving and other camp activities.

Saturday evening will feature a guided lantern tour and Sunday there will be a fashion show of men's uniforms and women's garb of the period.

The event is being held in the historic town of Mullica Hill, New Jersey with many antique shops and stores offering a wide variety of items. Special sales will celebrate the town's fall festival and feature books and crafts in addition to antiques.

MILITARY CAMPS OPEN FROM 9am TO 5pm SATURDAY AND SUNDAY.

Mullica Hill is located at the intersections of Routes 322 and 45 and easily accessible from I-95 via the Commodore Barry Bridge and Rt. 322; East from Exit 22 of I-295; East from Exit 2 of N. J. Turnpike; and west from Exit 50B of route 55.

A FUN FAMILY EVENT FOR THE PUBLIC AND REENACTORS.
